

The project narrative is to allow the residence to stay within the 15' property standoff. By allowing this, the structure would not have any impacts to the environment or public health