FOREST FORMS is a traveling sculpture exhibit designed and built by Huelani Mei and produced by Elemental Exhibitions. This exhibition features eighteen sculptures ranging in height from a playful five feet to a monumental twenty feet tall. These larger-than-life works include a majestic fox family, an intricate stack of flowers, adorable bunny rabbits, a slithery snake archway, an ethereal peacock, and more! Made from powder-coated steel in a style similar to line drawing

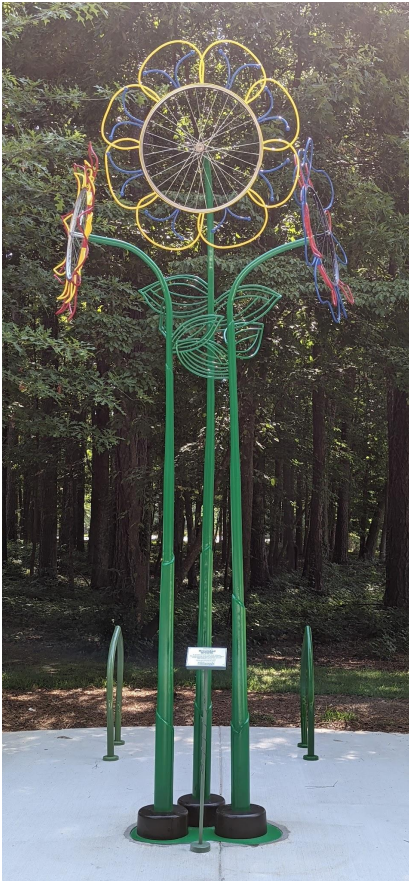

FOREST FORMS: WOODLAND WONDERS—a captivating new addition to the Forest Forms exhibition series, designed specifically for smaller gardens or those hosting an exhibition for the first time. Woodland Wonders features twenty-one mission-aligned sculptures of animals and plants, ranging in height from three to nine feet. Crafted from durable, powder-coated steel, these striking pieces install easily with minimal effort, adding color and movement to any landscape.
