List current and/or previous involvement on any government boards, committees, commissions or councils.

I am currently serving my second term on the Lebanon Planning Commission. This is my primary formal involvement in local government.

Explain why you are interested in serving in this capacity.

I am interested in serving on the City Council because I care deeply about Lebanon and the people who call it home. It is easy to sit back and talk about the changes we would like to see, but meaningful progress requires involvement, listening, and action. I believe that serving is one way to contribute

A. and thoughtful consideration of public input. Through this experience, I have developed a strong understanding of how local government decisions impact residents, neighborhoods, and the future of our city.

In addition to my formal service, I have lived my entire adult life as a full-time resident of Lebanon. I have purchased and sold four homes here and raised my family in this community. That lived experience gives me a practical understanding of housing, infrastructure, growth, and the challenges and opportunities facing Lebanon today.

B. way to contribute positively to the community that has given so much to my family and me.

This appointed position allows me to serve without the barrier of an election, which makes this opportunity especially meaningful at this time. I am committed to listening to understand, respecting different perspectives, and making thoughtful decisions that reflect a genuine interest in the long-term well-being of Lebanon. My goal is to help ensure that Lebanon remains a strong, welcoming, and livable community for current residents and future generations.
