Department Highlights

1. We are excited in welcoming new Fleet Division Director Jessie Robinson to our team. With his many years of experience in the automotive industry and commitment to operational efficiency, Jessie and the rest of the Fleet team will be instrumental in driving the success of our fleet operations.
2. Under the new Fleet Division we will be working closely with other department heads to ensure they have the necessary vehicles and equipment to continue their department's success.
3. We are in the process of collecting and processing data to make sure the Fleet is efficient, safe and compliant with all local and state standards.
4. We have met with Emergency Management Director Leatha Keene and are working on a plan for storm preparation within her department's fleet.
