

Join us on Zoom for another interactive
Adaptation Planning Meeting!

Help Shape a More Resilient Levy County

Program sponsored by the Florida Department of Environmental Protection

We need your input!

Levy County is launching a planning effort to address current and future flooding risks across our community. We are seeking input from residents, businesses, and stakeholders to help guide priorities and solutions.

Meeting Details

When: Thursday, May 28th, 2pm

Where: This meeting will take place virtually via Zoom. To join, please click on the following link or scan the QR code using your phone camera: <https://zoom.us/j/9613031460?omn=99629255554>

Zoom Link:

Why Attend?

- Share your concerns and priorities related to flooding
- Learn about current challenges and potential solutions from experts
- Help shape Levy County's future flood adaptation plan

Your voice matters.

Community input will directly inform strategies to reduce flooding impacts and improve long-term resilience across Levy County.

Additional Information

Public participation is welcome without regard to race, color, national origin, age, sex, religion, disability, or family status. For ADA accommodations, please call (352) 486-5218.

For questions, please contact Kari Bastow at bastow-kari@levycounty.org | 352.486.5218