The maximum award for assistance under the SHIP Program Owner Occupied Rehabilitation strategy has varied based on the household income category from $15,000 to $30,000. The repairs required do not vary based on income category and as such, there is a need to make the maximum award standard regardless of income category. This change to a standard maximum award amount does not result in the maximum award being spent on each household. Only the amount needed to rehabilitate the home will be spent.
