

Levy County Florida
A Proclamation

Declaring “October 7, 2026”, as “Honoring Lynetta and Ken Griner as 2027 Florida Agricultural Hall of Fame Inductees”
In Levy County, Florida

Whereas, agriculture is an important part of Levy County’s history, economy, and way of life, and the County recognizes those who have dedicated their lives to advancing Florida agriculture; and

Whereas, the Florida Agricultural Hall of Fame, established in 1980, honors individuals who have made lasting contributions to agriculture and to the future of Florida’s agricultural industry; and

Whereas, Lynetta and Ken Griner have been selected as 2027 Florida Agricultural Hall of Fame Inductees in recognition of their longstanding contributions to Florida agriculture, forestry, cattle production, conservation, and agricultural leadership; and

Whereas, the Griners have devoted more than three decades to preserving and advancing their family’s multigenerational agricultural operation, Usher Land & Timber, while serving in leadership roles throughout Florida’s forestry and cattle industries; and

Whereas, Lynetta and Ken have opened their agricultural operation to students, educators, policymakers, and the public, promoting agricultural education and responsible stewardship of working lands; and

Whereas, the Griners have made meaningful contributions to Levy County, including their involvement with the Timber Harvesting Equipment Program at the College of Central Florida’s Jack Wilkinson Levy Campus in Chiefland; and

Whereas, the Levy County Board of County Commissioners recognizes the Griners’ dedication to agriculture, conservation, education, and community service and congratulates them on this distinguished statewide honor.

Now, Therefore, Be It Proclaimed that the Levy County Board of County Commissioners hereby recognizes Lynetta and Ken Griner as 2027 Florida Agricultural Hall of Fame Inductees and extends its sincere appreciation for their contributions to Levy County and the State of Florida.

Duly proclaimed this 6th day of October 2026 in Bronson, Florida.
