LEVY COUNTY CODE ENFORCEMENT DIVISION

NOTICE OF CODE VIOLATION

Jennings, Candi M
19037 NE 31st PI
Williston, FL 32696

DATE: January 7, 2026

An inspection of your property located at 19037 NE 31st PI was conducted multiple times throughout 2025 and revealed the following violation of Levy County Code: Sections Appendix B, Sec 1 Note 3, 34-40 and 34-41, which provides that certain conditions are not allowed on any property in the county if the conditions are visible from a public street or of other public or private property, including:

APPENDIX B SEC. 1 -DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

Note regarding refunds: Once an application is filed with the County and the associated fees, rates or charges are paid to the County, no refunds will be issued to the applicant, unless a refund is specifically provided for in this Appendix or unless the permit was issued in error by the County.

Note regarding additional costs: The permit fees do not include additional costs to be paid by applicant for the services of engineers, legal counsel, or other professional consultants that are retained by the County in connection with review of any application or permit.

Note 1—For the purpose of determining fees, floor area shall be the gross overall outside area of a building at each story, including all portions under roofs.

Note 2—The building permit fee for a new building or addition includes flat work, such as stoops, sidewalks, patios, garage aprons or other walking surfaces incidental to the building, provided that no foundations are incorporated in the flat work.

Note 3—A separate building permit is required for each building, structure, or improvement of existing buildings, even when located on the same lot, tract, or parcel.

Note 4—Where a fee is based on value of the improvement and the valuation is not provided by the applicant, valuation will be determined by the County Development Department based on valuation data published by Southern Building Code Congress International or International Code Council, multiplied by the appropriate regional modifier. When the applicant provides the valuation, the County Development Department reserves the right to review and require documentation to support the valuation as reasonable and appropriate.

Note 5—Separate permit fees are required for electrical, plumbing, mechanical, fuel gas, or other permits shown elsewhere in this schedule, unless otherwise indicated.

Sec. 34-40 Prohibited Generally

(a) It shall be unlawful for the owner of any land in the county to permit or to cause thereon the open storage and accumulation of junk, trash and abandoned property prohibited on residential, commercial and agricultural property, except for the following:

(1) Junk stored in enclosed litter receptacles or completely enclosed buildings;

(2) Junk which will not fit into standard-sized litter receptacles and which is set out for no more than seven days for pickup and removal;

(3) Junk stored in a lawfully established and maintained junkyard, garbage or waste disposal site, or sanitary landfill; and

(4) Accumulations of vegetative wastes in agricultural districts and forestry.

(b) It shall be unlawful for the owner of any land in the county to permit or to cause thereon the Open storage and accumulation of junk, trash and abandoned property prohibited on residential, commercial and agricultural property.

Sec. 34-41 Keeping unserviceable vehicles prohibited.

(a) It shall be unlawful for any person to keep on any residential, commercial, industrial or agricultural property any unserviceable vehicle, unless such unserviceable vehicle is shielded from view, except for a vehicle temporarily stored on private real property for the purpose of repair, if the vehicle has a currently valid registration and currently valid license plate affixed thereon, and the motor vehicle is titled in the name of the owner of the property upon which the vehicle is situated or is titled in the name of the person currently residing on the premises.

The term "temporarily stored" shall mean that the vehicle shall be openly stored for no more than 60 calendar days.

(b) It shall be unlawful for the owner of any land in the county to cause or permit to be stored thereon, at any location, more than two unserviceable vehicles.

(c) Further, it shall be unlawful to store such two vehicles within the front and side yard setbacks established for the zoning district, except for the following:

(1) Unserviceable vehicles stored on the premises of a lawfully established and maintained junkyard, vehicle repair business, garbage or waste disposal site, sanitary landfill or on the lands of a bona fide agricultural operation.

(2) Vehicles stored within a completely enclosed building.

(d) The provisions of this section shall not apply to any property which, as of 1975, there was the accumulation and open storage of more than two vehicles.

(e) The provisions of this article shall not apply to any abandoned property which shall be within an enclosed building upon such property or upon the solidly enclosed and fenced premises maintained by the county as a depository for such abandoned property.

It is mandatory that you contact the Code Enforcement Officer at (352) 507-2141 within ten (10) days to discuss the status of the unpermitted structure the need to clean the property of all opened storage of junk and trash throughout the property to include the remove of all in operational or unregistered vehicles from property that is visible from the street or surrounding properties. Failure to vacate the vehicles and all property out in the open visible from the street off the lot by January 31st, 2026 will result in a Special Magistrate Hearing where daily fines can be ordered as along as the property stays in noncompliance.

If you have any questions regarding this letter, Please contact the Code Enforcement Office at (352) 558-7914. Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

3. Date of violation: December 1st, 2025

4. Code Section(s) violated: Appendix B, Sec 1 Note 3, Article II, Section 34-40 and 34-41

APPENDIX B SEC. 1 -DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

Note regarding refunds: Once an application is filed with the County and the associated fees, rates or charges are paid to the County, no refunds will be issued to the applicant, unless a refund is specifically provided for in this Appendix or unless the permit was issued in error by the County.

Note regarding additional costs: The permit fees do not include additional costs to be paid by applicant for the services of engineers, legal counsel, or other professional consultants that are retained by the County in connection with review of any application or permit.

Note 1—For the purpose of determining fees, floor area shall be the gross overall outside area of a building at each story, including all portions under roofs.

Note 2—The building permit fee for a new building or addition includes flat work, such as stoops, sidewalks, patios, garage aprons or other walking surfaces incidental to the building, provided that no foundations are incorporated in the flat work.

Note 3—A separate building permit is required for each building, structure, or improvement of existing buildings, even when located on the same lot, tract, or parcel.

Note 4—Where a fee is based on value of the improvement and the valuation is not provided by the applicant, valuation will be determined by the County Development Department based on valuation data published by Southern Building Code Congress International or International Code Council, multiplied by the appropriate regional modifier. When the applicant provides the valuation, the County Development Department reserves the right to review and require documentation to support the valuation as reasonable and appropriate.

Note 5—Separate permit fees are required for electrical, plumbing, mechanical, fuel gas, or other permits shown elsewhere in this schedule, unless otherwise indicated.

Sec. 34-40 Prohibited Generally

(a) It shall be unlawful for the owner of any land in the county to permit or to cause thereon the open storage and accumulation of junk, trash and abandoned property prohibited on residential, commercial and agricultural property, except for the following:

- (1) Junk stored in enclosed litter receptacles or completely enclosed buildings;
- (2) Junk which will not fit into standard-sized litter receptacles and which is set out for no more than seven days for pickup and removal;
- (3) Junk stored in a lawfully established and maintained junkyard, garbage or waste disposal site, or sanitary landfill; and
- (4) Accumulations of vegetative wastes in agricultural districts and forestry.

(b) It shall be unlawful for the owner of any land in the county to permit or to cause thereon the Open storage and accumulation of junk, trash and abandoned property prohibited on residential, commercial and agricultural property.

Sec. 34-41 Keeping unserviceable vehicles prohibited.

(a) It shall be unlawful for any person to keep on any residential, commercial, industrial or agricultural property any unserviceable vehicle, unless such unserviceable vehicle is shielded from view, except for a vehicle temporarily stored on private real property for the purpose of repair, if the vehicle has a currently valid registration and currently valid license plate affixed thereon, and the motor vehicle is titled in the name of the owner of the property upon which the vehicle is situated or is titled in the name of the person currently residing on the premises. The term "temporarily stored" shall mean that the vehicle shall be openly stored for no more than 60 calendar days.

(b) It shall be unlawful for the owner of any land in the county to cause or permit to be stored thereon, at any location, more than two unserviceable vehicles.

(c) Further, it shall be unlawful to store such two vehicles within the front and side yard setbacks established for the zoning district, except for the following:

(1) Unserviceable vehicles stored on the premises of a lawfully established and maintained junkyard, vehicle repair business, garbage or waste disposal site, sanitary landfill or on the lands of a bona fide agricultural operation.

(2) Vehicles stored within a completely enclosed building.

(d) The provisions of this section shall not apply to any property which, as of 1975, there was the accumulation and open storage of more than two vehicles.

(e) The provisions of this article shall not apply to any abandoned property which shall be within an enclosed building upon such property or upon the solidly enclosed and fenced premises maintained by the county as a depository for such abandoned property.

5. Description of Violation: On December 1st, 2025, I observed a large accumulation of junk, trash and car parts openly stored throughout the property and on the right of way and a large unpermitted structure built behind the mobile home with two unserviceable/unregistered Vehicles on the lot.
6. Date violation first observed: December 1st 2025
7. Date Owner/Person in charge received Notice of Violation: Sent on January 7th, 2026, a Notice of Violation was sent via USPS certified letter with return receipt requested and left with individual on January 10th 2026.
8. Date which violations are to be corrected: January 31st, 2026
9. Date of re-inspections if applicable: February 4th, 2026.
10. Result of inspection or re-inspection: Respondent not in compliance, Junk on the property and still no permit on file for structure and attempting to put up privacy fence rather than bring property into compliance.

Based upon the foregoing, the undersigned Code Enforcement Officer hereby certifies that The above described violation continues to exist in the jurisdiction within the boundaries of Levy County as specified in the Levy County Code of Ordinances, Article XIII, Sec 50-718 and Article II, Section 34-40. Attempts to secure compliance with the Levy County Code of Ordinances has failed, or this is a life safety issue, or this is a repeat violation, as aforesaid, and the violation should be referred to the Levy County Special Magistrate for a public hearing.
