RETIRED BUSINESS

March 2024

BSCE, Michigan Tech 1984

FL Professional Engineer 41104

FL General Contractor
CGC1506247

Chris Mills is currently semi-retired and serves as a business advisor and laborer for the family farming business based in Morriston FL.

Before being introduced to the agricultural lifestyle, Chris and his wife Jody owned and operated an aluminum fabrication and contracting company Architectural Metals in Fort Myers FL for 27 years.

Prior to this business, as a Florida Professional Engineer and Licensed General Contractor, Chris was performing both engineering and contracting services in the Southwest Florida area in his own practice.

Relocating to Florida in 1986, Chris spent his first five years working for a statewide architectural firm and then four years in the Facilities Departments for both Collier and Lee County Public Schools. Chris earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Civil Engineering from Michigan Technological University.

A resident of Levy County since 2011, a newly formed interest in showing cattle introduced the family to this area where they purchased land and were able to expand the operation. Selling the Fort Myers business in 2021 has allowed Chris and his wife time to work with their son Mason's developing farming operation.
