WHEREAS, water quality is a priority for the health and welfare of citizens in Lake Forest Park; and

WHEREAS, educational initiatives such as the regional “Puget Sound Starts Here” campaign work to protect and improve local and regional water quality; and

WHEREAS, state agencies and more than 400 local organizations, governments and tribes, including Lake Forest Park, have joined together to engage residents in Puget Sound recovery, and who have collectively launched the “Puget Sound Starts Here” public awareness campaign; and

WHEREAS, “Puget Sound Starts Here Month” is an opportunity to bring attention and focus to the issue of local and regional water quality and provide educational opportunities for the public to learn how they can help clean up Puget Sound and our local waterways; and

WHEREAS, the actions Puget Sound’s more than 4.5 million residents take today add up to determine the future of our health, economy, culture and quality of life;
