

LDA Mission Statement

The Loganville Development Authority acts as community liaison for economic development initiatives throughout the city. As the main source for community networking, the Authority will offer technical support for local business development, bolster community branding for the City of Loganville, and facilitate programmatic community improvement projects.

(adopted September 7, 2023)