EXHIBIT "A"

Sec. 22-49. - Disorderly conduct.

(a) It shall be unlawful for any person within the corporate limits of the city to:

(1) Attempt to commit a violent injury to the person of another.

(2) Commit an act which places another in reasonable apprehension of immediately receiving a violent injury.

(3) Intentionally make physical contact of an insulting or provoking nature with the person of another.

(4) Intentionally cause physical harm to another.

(5) Intentionally damage any property of another without consent.

(6) It shall be unlawful for any person to urinate or defecate on the streets or sidewalks or any other public property or upon the curtilage of any private property which is open to public view.

(67) Without provocation, use to another person or in such other person's presence, opprobrious or abusive words which by their very utterance tend to incite an immediate breach of the peace, that is to say, words which, as a matter of common knowledge and under ordinary circumstances will, when used to another person or in such other person's presence, naturally tend to provoke violent resentment, that is, words commonly called "fighting words."

(78) Without provocation, use obscene and vulgar or profane language in a public gathering, school or school function, athletic or sporting event, public meeting, publicly owned or operated building, or in the presence of a person under the age of 14 years.

(89) Cause bodily harm to or endanger the bodily safety of another by consciously disregarding a substantial and unjustified risk that the act or omission will cause harm or endanger the safety of the other person and the disregard constitutes a gross deviation from the standard of care which a reasonable person would exercise in the situation.

(910) Willfully obstruct, hinder, or oppose an employee of the state or any political subdivision thereof, including, but not limited to, the city, in the lawful discharge of the employee's official duties.

(1011) Willfully obstruct, hinder or oppose an emergency medical technician, nurse, or doctor in the lawful discharge of their official duties. This section, however, does not abridge a citizen's right to legally refuse medical treatment.

(1112) Congregate with another or others in or on any public way so as to significantly impede the flow of vehicular or pedestrian traffic and refuse to clear such public way when requested by a law enforcement officer or other city employee.

(1213) While in a gathering, refuse to obey the reasonable official request or order of a peace officer, firefighter, or emergency medical technician to move for the purpose of promoting the public safety by dispersing those gathered in dangerous proximity to a fire, accident, emergency, or violent situation.

(b) Any person found guilty of disorderly conduct shall be punished in accordance with article V, section 5.13 of the City of Loganville Charter.
