History: (Please identify information source.)

Lawrence Erickson was the brother of John Erickson of Jackson Street. The late Hulda Erickson (daughter of John Erickson) is the Aunt of Mrs. Rudolph. The present owner was born in this house in 1913. Bessie Erickson used to help with the Census taking in the 1920s. Ericksons were among the original families in Los Gatos and Mrs. Rudolph can remember as a little girl seeing the names of Lawrence and John Erickson along with two others, etched in marble on the columns of the old Los Gatos bridge.

Remodeling: (Please identify information source and year of change.)

The home is exactly as it was the year it was built. The old bathtub, etc. is still in the house and in use.

Mrs. Rudolph requests that this home NOT be included in the book coming out next year.
