The deciding body, on the basis of the evidence submitted at the hearing, may grant a conditional use permit when specifically authorized by the provisions of the Town Code if it finds that:

1. The proposed use is desirable to the public convenience because it provides group classes and exercise opportunities, for visitors and residents in the downtown and surrounding areas during the renovation of an existing sports recreation club; and
2. The proposed use would not impair the integrity of the zone, in that the proposed use is a commercial use and would be located in a commercial zone; and

4. The proposed use is in conformance with the Town Code and General Plan.
