Summary Statement:	The Mayor has appointed a new member, Kelsey Maloy, to fill a vacancy on the Lynden Historic Preservation Commission. This appointment is being brought forward to the City Council meeting for confirmation. Kelsey will be filling the seat vacated by Mark Bratt, who resigned his term in 2020. For those who may not be aware, the Lynden Historic Preservation Commission consists of five members. They are responsible for hearing and deciding on nominations to the Lynden Historic Places Register, as well as approving proposed alterations to those historic structures. Kelsey brings an academic background in archeology and museum organization. She is particularly interested in using history to connect people to the story of their place.
Recommended Action:	Motion to confirm the appointment of Kelsey Maloy to the Lynden Historic Preservation Commission beginning immediately and expiring on December 31, 2024.
