The Agreement for Probation Services
Summary Statement:
The City of Lynden is authorized by Washington State law to provide probation services to the citizens of the City. The City has found it in the best interests of it's citizens if such services were provided to those persons that have been cited into Municipal Court. The City does not possess the staff with expertise or the facilities to provide such services. The County does however possess the staff, expertise and facilities to provide the described services. The attached mutual agreement is for the County to provide pretrial and post-conviction probation services for the City.
Recommended Action:
After review, for the Council to approve the Agreement for Probation Services and authorize the Mayor's.
