Hi Michelle,

I am turning in the HDC paperwork. I tried to look back at the emails. Could you please send me the dimensions on the new sign?

Thank you,

MACKINAC ISLAND

In 1670 a Jesuit priest, Fr. Claude Dablon, wintered here. The British in 1781 made it a center of their military and fur-trade activity. The island was occupied by the Americans in 1796. Held by the British during the War of 1812, it became the hub of Astor's fur empire after 1817. Mackinac was already becoming a popular resort when fur trading declined during the 1830s.
