STATE OF MICHIGAN
103RD LEGISLATURE
REGULAR SESSION OF 2026

Introduced by Senators Damoose, Bumstead, Singh, McMorrow, Bayer, McBroom and Wojno

ENROLLED SENATE BILL No. 304

AN ACT to amend 1899 LA 437, entitled “An act to vacate the Township of Holmes and Village of Mackinac in Mackinac County, State of Michigan, and to Incorporate the City of Mackinac Island in said Mackinac County,” by amending section 1 of chapter IX and section 1 of chapter XVI; and to provide for a referendum.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

CHAPTER IX

GENERAL POWERS OF CITY CORPORATION

Section 1. Said City of Mackinac Island shall, in addition to such other powers as are herein conferred, have the general powers and authority in this chapter mentioned; and the council may pass such ordinances in relation thereto and for the exercise of the same, as they may deem proper, namely:

First, to restrain and prevent vice and immorality, gambling, noise and disturbance, indecent or disorderly conduct or assemblages, and to punish for the same; to prevent and quell riots; to preserve peace and good order, and to protect the property of the corporation, and of its inhabitants, and of any association, public or private corporation or congregation therein, and to punish for injuries thereto, or for unlawful interference therewith;

Second, to apprehend and punish vagrants, truants, mendicants, street beggars, drunkards and persons found drunk in any of the public streets or places in the city, disorderly persons, and persons conducting themselves in a disorderly manner in any of the public streets or places in the city, and common prostitutes;

Third, to prevent injury or annoyance from anything dangerous, offensive, or unhealthy; to prohibit and remove anything tending to cause or promote disease; to prevent and abate nuisances, and to punish those occasioning them, or neglecting or refusing to abate, discontinue, or remove the same;

Fourth, to prohibit and suppress all disorderly houses and places, houses of ill-fame, assignation houses, gambling houses, and all places where persons resort for gaming or to play at games of chance, and to punish the keepers thereof;

Fifth, to regulate or license the use of billiard tables, nine or ten-pin alleys or tables, and ball alleys;

Sixth, to prohibit and suppress every species of gaming, and to authorize the seizure and destruction of all instruments and devices used for the purpose of gaming;

Seventh, to prohibit and prevent the selling or giving of any spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors to any drunkard or intemperate person, minor or apprentice, and to punish any person so doing;

Eighth, to regulate, restrain or prohibit all sports, exhibitions of natural or artificial curiosities, caravans, circuses, menageries, theatrical exhibitions, shows, and all exhibitions of whatever name or nature, for which money or other reward is in any manner demanded or received; lectures on historic, literary, or scientific subjects excepted;

Ninth, to prevent and punish violations of the Sabbath day, and the disturbances of any religious meeting, congregation or society, or other public meeting assembled for any lawful purpose; and to require all places of business to be closed on the Sabbath day;

Tenth, to license auctioneers, auctions and sales at auction; to regulate or prohibit the sale of live or domestic animals at auction in the streets or alleys, or upon any public grounds within the city; to regulate or prohibit the sale of goods, wares, property, or anything at auction, or by any manner of public biddings or offers by the buyers or sellers after the manner of auction sales, and to license the same, and to regulate the fees to be paid by and to auctioneers; but no license shall be required in case of sales required by law to be made at auction or public vendue;

Eleventh, to license hawkers, peddlers, and pawnbrokers, and hawking and peddling, and to regulate, license or prohibit the sale or peddling of goods, wares, merchandise, refreshments, or any kind of property or thing by persons going about from place to place in the city for that purpose, or from any stand, cart, vehicle, or other device in or upon the streets, highways, alleys, sidewalks, or in or upon the wharves, docks, or from boats, open places or spaces, public grounds or buildings in the city;

Twelfth, to license and regulate wharf boats, and to regulate the use of tugs and other boats used in and about the harbor, and within the jurisdiction of the city;

Thirteenth, to establish or authorize, license and regulate all aspects of ferry service to and from the city, or any place therein, or from one part of the city to another, and to regulate and prescribe from time to time all charges and prices for or in connection with the transportation of persons and property, by ferry, including, but not limited to, baggage fees, early or priority boarding fees, fees and charges for parking of vehicles by persons accessing the ferry service, whether within the city or on the mainland, and all other fees and charges in connection with the ferry service;

Fourteenth, to regulate and license all taverns and houses of public entertainment; all saloons, restaurants, and eating houses, and to regulate and prescribe the location of saloons; but this shall not be construed as authorizing the licensing of the sale of intoxicating liquors;

Fifteenth, to license and regulate all vehicles of every kind, used for the transportation of persons or property for hire, in the city, and regulate or fix their stands on the streets and public places, and at wharves, boat landings, railroad station grounds and other places;

Sixteenth, to regulate and license all toll bridges within the city, and to prescribe the rates and charges for passage over the same;

Seventeenth, to provide for and regulate the inspection of meats, poultry, fish, butter, cheese, lard, vegetables, flour, meat, and other provisions;

Eighteenth, to regulate the inspection, weighing and measuring of brick, lumber, fire-wood, coal, hay, and any article of merchandise;

Nineteenth, to provide for the inspection and sealing of weights and measures, and to enforce the keeping and use of proper weights and measures by vendors;

Twentieth, to regulate the construction, repair and use of vaults, cisterns, areas, hydrants, pumps, sewers and gutters;

Twenty-first, to prohibit and prevent, in the streets, or elsewhere in the city, indecent exposure of the person, the show, sale, or exhibition for sale, of indecent or obscene pictures, drawings, engravings, paintings, and books or pamphlets, and all indecent or obscene exhibitions and shows of every kind;

Twenty-second, to regulate or prohibit bathing in the rivers, ponds, streams and waters of the city;

Twenty-third, to provide for clearing the rivers, ponds, canals and streams of the city and the races connected therewith of all driftwood and noxious matter; to prohibit and prevent the depositing therein of any filth or other matter tending to render the waters thereof impure, unwholesome and offensive;

Twenty-fourth, to compel the owner or occupant of any grocery, tallow chandler shop, soap or candy factory, butcher shop or stall, slaughterhouse, stable, barn, privy, sewer, or other offensive, nauseous or unwholesome place or house, to cleanse, remove or abate the same whenever the council shall deem it necessary for the health, comfort, or convenience of the inhabitants of the city;

Twenty-fifth, to regulate the keeping, selling, and using of dynamite, gunpowder, firecrackers and fireworks, and other explosive or combustible materials, and the exhibition of fireworks, and the discharge of firearms, and to restrain the making or lighting of fires in the streets and other open spaces in the city;

Twenty-sixth, to direct and regulate the construction of cellars, slips, barns, private drains, sinks, and privies;

Twenty-seventh, to prohibit, prevent and suppress mock auctions, and every kind of fraudulent game, device, or practice, and to punish all persons managing, using, practicing, or attempting to manage, use or practice the same, and all persons aiding in the management or practice thereof;

Twenty-eighth, to prohibit, prevent and suppress all lotteries for the drawing or disposing of money or any other property whatsoever, and to punish all persons maintaining, directing, or managing the same, or aiding in the maintenance, directing, or managing the same;

Twenty-ninth, to license and regulate solicitors for passengers or for baggage to and from any hotel, tavern, public house, boat or street railway station; and to provide the places where they may be admitted to solicit or receive patronage; also draymen, carmen, truckmen, porters, runners, drivers of cabs, hackney coaches, omnibuses, carriages, sleighs, express vehicles, and vehicles of every other description used and employed for hire, and to fix and regulate the amounts and rates of their compensation;

Thirtieth, to provide for the protection and care of paupers, and to prohibit and prevent all persons from bringing to the city, from any other place, any pauper, or other person likely to become a charge upon the city, and to punish therefor;

Thirty-first, to provide for taking a census of the inhabitants of the city, whenever the council shall see fit, and to direct and regulate the same;

Thirty-second, to provide for the issuing of licenses to the owners and keepers of dogs, and to compel the owners and keepers thereof to pay for and obtain such licenses; and to regulate and prevent the running at large of dogs; to require them to be muzzled and to authorize the killing of all dogs not licensed, or running at large in violation of any ordinance of the city;

Thirty-third, to prohibit and punish the use of toy pistols, sling shots and other dangerous toys or implements within the city;

Thirty-fourth, to require any horses, mules, or other animals attached to any vehicle or standing in any of the streets, lanes, or alleys in the city to be securely fastened, hitched, watched or held; and to regulate the placing and provide for the preservation of hitching posts;

Thirty-fifth, to provide for and regulate the numbering of buildings upon the streets and alleys, and to compel the owners or occupants to affix numbers on the same; and to designate and change the names of public streets, alleys and parks;

Thirty-sixth, to provide for, establish, regulate and preserve public fountains and reservoirs within the city, and such troughs and basins for watering animals as they may deem proper;

Thirty-seventh, to prevent or provide for the construction and operation of street railways and to regulate the same and to determine and designate the route and grade of any street railway to be laid or constructed in said city;

Thirty-eighth, to establish and maintain a public library, and to provide a suitable building therefor, and to aid in maintaining such other public libraries as may be established within the city by private beneficence as the council may deem to be for the public good;

Thirty-ninth, the council may also license transient traders, which shall be held to include all persons who may engage in the business of selling goods or merchandise after the commencement of the fiscal year, and the license fee in such cases may be apportioned with relation to the part of the fiscal year which has expired, but such traders, if they continue in the same business, shall not be required to take out a second license after the commencement of the next fiscal year: Provided, such goods or merchandise have been assessed for taxes for said fiscal year;

Fortieth, the council shall further have authority to enact all ordinances, and to make all such regulations, consistent with the laws and constitution of the state as they may deem necessary for the safety, order and good government of the city, and the general welfare of the inhabitants thereof; but no exclusive rights, privileges or permits shall be granted by the council to any person or persons, or to any corporation, for any purpose whatever.

CHAPTER XVI

FERRIES

Section 1. The council of said city may license and regulate all aspects of ferries from such city or any place of landing therein, to the opposite shore, or from one part of the city to another; and may require the payment of such reasonable sum for such license as to the council shall seem proper and may impose such reasonable terms and restrictions in relation to the keeping and management of a ferry transportation service, and the time, manner, and rates of carriage and transportation of persons and property as may be proper, including, but not limited to, baggage fees, early or priority boarding fees, fees and charges for parking of vehicles by persons accessing the ferry service, whether within the city or on the mainland, and all other fees and charges in connection with the ferry service, and provide for the revocation of any such licenses and for the punishment, by proper fines and penalties, of the violation of any ordinance prohibiting unlicensed ferries, and regulating those established and licensed. This section does not diminish any authority provided by other statutes to any city, village, or township.

Enacting section 1. (1) This amendatory act does not take effect unless approved by a majority of the electors of the city of Mackinac Island voting on the question. The question of the approval of this amendatory act shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the city at the next regular election to be held not less than 60 days after the effective date of this amendatory act or at a special election called for that purpose. The question shall be submitted in substantially the following form:
