

MSC partnering with James Clemens on Sages & Seekers intergenerational program that's designed to develop empathy and diminish social isolation and ageism, while meeting the universal and compelling need of both teens and older adults to find meaning and purpose in their lives. Seekers develop social-emotional skills while also enhancing their interviewing, listening, writing, and public-speaking competencies. It is an 8-week program done twice a year once in the fall and spring semester. There will be approximately 15 students that will partner with 15 seniors and they interact with the curriculum provided by the Sage & Seekers organization. The curriculum will be led by the James Clemens Instructors and LaWanda(MSC Coordinator). The initial investment is $2,500.00 for the curriculum with a $150.00 annual fee each year.
