AGENDA ITEM DESCRIPTION:

Presentation of the April 2026 Manor Business Spotlight Award to Kae’s Tax Pros.

BACKGROUND/SUMMARY:

The April 2026 Manor Business Spotlight Award recipient is Kae’s Tax Pros, a locally operated business recognized for its professionalism, financial expertise, and strong commitment to community education. The business has earned positive feedback from residents for providing reliable tax services while also helping individuals better understand their finances.

Community feedback consistently highlights the team’s dedication to educating clients, taking the time to explain the tax process, and empowering residents to make informed financial decisions. Residents appreciate the approachable and supportive environment Kae’s Tax Pros creates, making tax preparation more accessible and less intimidating.

In addition to its service excellence, Kae’s Tax Pros demonstrates meaningful community involvement. The business is actively engaged in local events, offering guidance and support to residents and contributing to the community's overall financial awareness. Their outreach efforts and commitment to giving back have distinguished them as a trusted and valued resource in Manor.

Through its combination of professional service, financial education, and community engagement, Kae’s Tax Pros positively contributes to the well-being of Manor residents. The City of Manor is proud to recognize the business for its dedication to service and impact within the community.
