Dear Sir or Madam:

This is in response to your request dated April 25, 2017, for information about your tax-exempt status.

Our records indicate we issued a determination letter to you in October 1940, and that you're currently exempt under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 501(c)(8).

We also recognized the subordinates on the list you submitted as exempt from federal income tax under IRC Section 501(c)(8).

For federal income tax purposes, donors can deduct contributions or gifts they make to you if the contributions or gifts are used exclusively for IRC Section 501(c)(3) purposes. If you solicit contributions or gifts for non-501(c)(3) purposes, the solicitation must include a statement that the contributions are not deductible for federal income tax purposes.

Please refer to www.irs.gov/charities for information about filing requirements. Specifically, IRC Section 6033(j) provides that, if you don't file a required return or notice for three consecutive years, your exempt status will be automatically revoked on the filing due date of the third required return or notice.

In addition, each subordinate organization is subject to automatic revocation if it doesn't file a required return or notice for three consecutive years. Subordinate organizations can file required returns or notices individually or as part of a group return.

For tax forms, instructions, and publications, visit www.irs.gov or call 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you have questions, call 1-877-829-5500 between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m., local time, Monday through Friday (Alaska and Hawaii follow Pacific Time).

Sincerely yours,

Dear Taxpayer:

This is in response to your Nov. 30, 2009, request for information about your tax-exempt status.

Our records indicate that you were issued a determination letter in October 1940, and that you are currently exempt under section 501(c)(8) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Based on the information supplied, we recognized the subordinates named on the list you submitted as exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(8) of the Code.

Contributions or gifts by individuals to domestic fraternal societies, orders, or associations, operating under the lodge system, used exclusively for 501(c)(3) purposes are deductible under section 170(c)(4) of the Code. If solicitations are made for contributions or gifts by individuals for non-501(c)(3) purposes, the solicitation must include a statement indicating that these payments are not deductible as charitable contributions for Federal income tax purposes.

If you have any questions, please call us at the telephone number shown in the heading of this letter.

Sincerely yours,

Knights of Columbus,

o/o Mr. Luks E. Hart,

Supreme Advocate,

IASAlle Ruilding,

St. Louis, Vissouri.

Reference is made to the information submitted by you for use natorouse is made to the information summitted by you for use in determining your status and the status of your local subordinate councils for federal income and employment tax purposes.

It is the opinion of this office, based upon the evidence presented, that you and your subordinate councils listed in the "Directory of Councils and Officers, 1939-40" are example from Federal income tax under the provisions of section 101(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and the corresponding provisions of prior revenue acts.

Accordingly, you and your subordinate councils will not be required to file returns of income unless there is a change in the character of your organization, the purposes for which you note organized or your mothed of operation, or that of your subordinate councils. Any such changes should be impediately reported by you to this Bureau in order that the effect of such changes upon the present exempt status may be determined. You should furnish the Bureau annually, on the calendar year basis, lists in quadruplicate showing the manes and addresses of any councils which were chartered during the calendar year and the names and addresses of any councils which for any resson ceased to exist. Such annual lists should be accompanied by a statement, snorn to by one of your principal officers, as to whother or not the information horutofore submitted by you and on which this ruling is based, in applicable in all respects to the rew councils appearing on the lists, and should be forwarded so as to reach this office not later than February 18 of the following year.

The exemption evidenced by this letter relates specifically to Federal income tax, but since any organization which is exempt from such tax under the provisions of section 101 of the Internal Revenue Code also is entitled to exemption from the capital stock tax pursuant to the express provisions of section 1201(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code, you and your subordinate councils will not be required to file capital stock tax returns for future years so long as the exception from income tax is effective.

The determination of the status of your organization and sub-ordinate councils for Federal employment tax purposes will be made the subject of a separate communication.

A copy of this ruling is being transmitted to the collectors of internal revenue for the several districts in which you and your subordinate councils are located.

By direction of the Commissioner.
