WHEREAS, on June 25, 2024, Governor Ron DeSantis signed into law an amendment to Florida Statute 163.3180 that provides in part:

(j)1. If a county and municipality charge the developer of a new development or redevelopment a fee for transportation capacity impacts, the county and municipality must create and execute an interlocal agreement to coordinate the mitigation of their respective transportation capacity impacts.

2. The interlocal agreement must, at a minimum:

a. Ensure that any new development or redevelopment is not charged twice for the same transportation capacity impacts; and

WHEREAS, the city adopted in 2020, and then amended in 2021, a proportionate share development fee ordinance which includes a mobility fee; and

WHEREAS, at the time that the mobility fee was adopted the city was not collecting the multimodal impact fee authorized by Pinellas County and therefore there was no offset or credit contemplated in the computation of the city's mobility fee; and

WHEREAS, the city wishes to complete its review of the imposition of the mobility fee to confirm that any new development or redevelopment is not charged twice for the same transportation capacity impacts and the Board of Commissioners deems it appropriate to place a moratorium on the imposition and collection of mobility fees on a temporary basis.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED BY THE BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS OF THE CITY OF MADEIRA BEACH, FLORIDA, THAT:

Section 4. The provisions of this Resolution are declared to be severable and, if in any section, sentence, clause or phrase of this Resolution shall for any reason be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining section, sentences, clauses and phrases of this Resolution but they shall remain in effect, it being the legislative intent that this Resolution shall stand notwithstanding the invalidity of any part.
