Administrator means the city manager or designee.

Applicant means a person applying for the issuance of a building permit.

Building area means the enclosed area of buildings measured in square feet within the city according to the Pinellas County Property Appraiser as provided in the field TOTLVGAREA in the Pinellas County Property Appraiser's Geographic Information System.

The character of the improvement will control a determination of whether an improvement is a project improvement or a system improvement. If a facility or improvement provides or will provide more than incidental facility or service capacity to persons other than users or occupants of a particular project, the facility or improvement is a system improvement and will not be considered a project improvement. No facility or improvement included in the City of Madeira Beach Comprehensive Plan Capital Improvements Element Capital Improvement Program ("CIP") Schedule of Capital Improvements will be considered a project improvement.

Proportionate share means that portion of the cost of improvements that is reasonably related to the service demands and needs of a project.

Projected interest charges and other finance costs may be included if the proportionate-share development fees are to be used for the payment of principal and interest on bonds, notes, or other financial obligations issued by or on behalf of the city to finance the improvements in the capital improvements element but such costs do not include routine and periodic maintenance expenditures, personnel training, and other operating costs.

System improvements means improved municipal facilities and services designed to provide service to the citizens and visitors, in contrast to "project improvements."
