PAYMENT TERMS:

Payment will be made only after completion and acceptance of the Work.

Pursuant to Florida Statutes § 218.735, Contractor's invoices must be submitted to the City's project manager for review and processing. This official will stamp each invoice as received, and, if deemed complete, accepted and not disputed, shall thereafter be paid within 25 business days after receipt. If an invoice fails to meet the contract requirements by, among other things, failing to provide the date(s) of service, the materials used, and other details sufficient to verify the work and its related costs, the City will reject the invoice within 20 days after it is received. Any such rejection will be in writing and will specify the deficiencies and what information or changes are required to make the invoice proper. Payment of corrected, accepted invoices will be within 10 business days from the invoiced City's receipt of same unless City Commission approval is required. Any portion of an invoice covering Work or materials which are disputed by the invoiced City in terms of quality, quantity, workmanship or defective installation shall be disputed by the City in accordance with Florida Statutes § 218.76(2). However, any portion of an invoice covering Work or materials which are not disputed will be paid within the time periods set forth herein.

Complete payment for the Work will not be made until all conduit, junction boxes, and other required equipment or materials are installed; Work is completed; the Work sites are restored to "as good or better" conditions; and, the Work has been inspected and accepted by the City's construction permit inspector and/or the Engineer

A 5% retainage of the awarded bid amount, will be withheld.

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
- The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)
Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.
