Subject: Michigan Humanities Awards Results

Good afternoon,

Congratulations again on your nomination for the 2024 Michigan Humanities Awards! Someone was truly impacted by the work you or your organization is doing and nominated you for one of our state-wide humanities awards.

We had a large number of nominations this year and the selection committee had the very difficult job of choosing just two to receive the award, and I'm afraid you did not receive a Michigan Humanities Award this year. While you were not chosen this year, we hope you join us in being so proud of the work you are doing in public humanities. We will be announcing award recipients via press release and social media sometime this month.

We wish you all the best and are so happy to have you as a partner in the humanities community. Please visit www.michiganhumanities.org for more information on how we at Michigan Humanities can help support the work you are doing.

Kindest regards,

Maurice Imhoff (he/him)
