EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:

National Public Safety Telecommunicators Week (NPSTW) is held annually during the second week of April to honor public safety telecommunicators for their commitment, service, and sacrifice. NPSTW initially started in 1981 by Patricia Anderson of the Contra Costa County Sheriff's Office in California. In 1994, President Clinton signed Presidential Proclamation 6667, declaring the second week of April as NPSTW. This week is a time to celebrate and thank telecommunications personnel across the nation who serve our communities, citizens, and public safety personnel 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

RECOMMENDATION:

Police Chief Brent LeMerise requests City Council proclaim April 13th-April 19th, 2025 as National Telecommunicators Week in the City of Madison Heights.
