Summary

This addendum allows for the addition of UWPD to Join the Coalition of Small Police Agencies. We share training opportunities, work with each other if we need to borrow instructors, and work together to help each other out as in small agencies resources are limited. We participate in the Major Crimes Task Force, compromised by a detective from each agency that allows us to call in a team to help us with larger investigations. This has very little impact on the agency and no financial impact.
