An employee may opt out of personal coverage if he or she provides proof of valid health insurance from another source, maintains such coverage and the insurance plan permits. The employee may choose to apply the reimbursement to their deferred compensation plan or Flexible Spending Account. during the first week of the “open enrollment” period as set by the AWC Employee Benefit Trust. Employees shall be notified in advance of the open enrollment period with sufficient notice for decision making purposes. At least two (2) employees in this bargaining unit shall be allowed to exercise the opt out provision for personal coverage during the first week of open enrollment. After the first week, this opt out provision will be expanded to additional employees in the bargaining unit should additional opportunities remain after other eligible employees have the opportunity to exercise the option. Seniority within the bargaining unit shall govern who is allowed to exercise the option should more than two (2) employees desire to opt out. “Opt out opportunities” means the number of employees who may opt out within the minimum coverage requirements of the AWC Employee Benefits Trust. Employees may voluntarily elect to participate in the reimbursement program to pay medical or dependent care expenses with pre-tax dollars. If payments to a FSA trigger the Affordable Care Act excise tax, the City may avoid triggering the tax by modifying or discontinuing the program with advance notice to the Union that includes a reasonable opportunity for bargaining.

13.7 Re-Opener – In the event that health insurance premium costs increase ten percent (10%) or greater year-over-year in any year of this Agreement, the City and the Union agree to meet on the call of the Employer to re-open Article 13. The parties will mutually agree on the date, time and location of the meeting(s).

13.8 The Employer agrees to provide a mandatory payroll deduction as contribution to the Plan on behalf of all employees in the collective bargaining group (“Group”) defined as eligible to participate in the Plan. Each eligible employee must submit a completed and signed Membership Enrollment Form to become a Plan participant and be eligible for benefits under the Plan.

The Group is defined as those employees belonging to the Office-Clerical bargaining unit of Teamsters Local 763. Contributions on behalf of each eligible employee shall be based on the following selected funding sources and formula.

Upon separation from employment, employees in the Group eligible for sick leave cash out under the terms of the collective bargaining agreement shall have such cash out amount contributed on their behalf to the HRA VEBA Medical Reimbursement Program.

Each employee in the Group shall additionally fund the Plan via payroll deduction on a monthly basis equal to a set dollar amount. Contribution levels will be determined by the Group and shall be in force for each subsequent calendar year until such time as one or more members of the bargaining unit request to vote a change in contribution level for the following calendar year. The amount shall be determined by a majority vote of the members in the Group. Tie votes will be resolved by a flip of a coin.

If contributions to the Plan could trigger the Affordable Care Act excise tax beginning in 2022, either party may reopen this section to bargain changes necessary to avoid triggering the tax.

ARTICLE XIV TUITION REIMBURSEMENT, TRAINING AND CONFERENCES

14.1 Training/Education Assistance – The City of Medina recognizes the fact that obtaining sufficient job training improves an employee’s ability to perform his or her job. It is the City’s intent to encourage employees to obtain additional training and education, which will facilitate their advancement in City employment and will be consistent with the best interests of the City. There are three (3) types of employee training that will be sponsored by the City of Medina. They are:

1. Mandatory safety procedures and other job skills – This category may include courses in first aid and defensive driving as well as instruction on the use of the City’s telephone and mail systems and photocopiers.
2. Employee development – Training of this sort may include specialized accounting and computer skills, effective communication skills, supervisory skills, and other courses that enhance an employee’s ability to perform his or her job. It may also include professional/management development courses such as those comprising the Cascade Management program.
3. Post high school or vocational courses leading to a degree that is relevant to the employee’s position or promotional opportunities within the City.

14.2 Education Assistance – Consideration of requests by an employee for education assistance (the type of training described in category three (3) above) is dependent upon budgetary constraints and the relevance of the course and/or the degree being pursued to the employee’s current position or in the direct line of promotion. Only courses taken through an accredited college, university or vocational training which are relevant to the employee’s current position or in the direct line of promotion will be considered for reimbursement. Eligible courses should also provide technical knowledge or skill that will improve the employee’s ability to perform the job.

14.2.1 Regular full-time employees who have completed six (6) months of employment are eligible to apply for education assistance to pay for a maximum of two (2) courses per quarter to improve their current and future job-related skills, knowledge and abilities. In order to obtain the reimbursement authorized, the employee must successfully complete the course attaining a “C” grade or better (2.0 or above on a 4.0 scale) or a “Pass” in a Pass/Fail course. It is anticipated that course work will be undertaken during non-work hours. Flexible working hours may be allowed by the department director to accommodate the employee’s class schedule.

14.2.2 The reimbursement rate will not exceed the lesser of either eighty percent (80%) of the actual tuition cost for the course, or eighty percent (80%) of the Washington public university in-state tuition rate for an equivalently credited course (based on UW per credit rates for quarter courses and WSU per credit rates for semester courses) and based on undergraduate or graduate credit rates as appropriate. The maximum reimbursement amount will be $1500.00 per calendar year per employee. If standard reimbursement rates are used instead of actual, the rates will be those in effect when the course is considered for reimbursement by the Department Director. In determining the reimbursement amount, the Department Director may consider factors including funding availability and total requests, allocation among departments, prior reimbursement to the employee, the relevance of the specific course to the position currently held, etc. Reimbursement requests must be submitted within three (3) months of completion of the course. Reimbursement will not be allowed for books, lab fees, travel expenses, material or other costs. Employees accepting education assistance agree to repay to the City the amount of assistance received if they do not remain in the City's employ for one year following completion of the course for which reimbursement is received.

ARTICLE XV PROBATIONARY PERIOD, LAYOFF, RECALL AND JOB VACANCIES

- 15.1 Probation Period - A new employee shall be subject to a six (6) month probation period commencing with the most recent date of hire. - 15.3 Layoff – In case of a layoff, the employee with the shortest length of continuous service within the affected classification shall be laid off first (last in, first out), subject to Section 15.2.2. The Employer shall provide an employee with four (4) weeks advance notification prior to layoff.
- 15.4 Recall – In case of recall, those employees within the work group laid off last shall be recalled first. An employee on layoff must keep both the Employer and the Union informed of the address and telephone number where he can be contacted.
- 15.5 Job Vacancies – When a permanent job vacancy occurs, present employees shall be given first consideration for filling the vacancy, based on their length of service with the Employer and ability to perform the duties of the job.

- 15.5.1 Notice of permanent job vacancies shall be posted on the bulletin board for seven (7) days. Present employees who desire consideration for such opening shall notify the Employer in writing during the seven (7) day period the notice is posted.

ARTICLE XVI DISCHARGE AND DISCIPLINE

- 16.1 The Employer shall not discharge nor suspend a permanent employee without just cause, but in respect to discharge or suspension shall give at least one (1) warning letter of the complaint against such employee to the employee in writing and a copy of the same to the Union, except that no warning letter need be given to an employee before he is discharged or suspended if the cause of such discharge or suspension is for theft, gross insubordination, drunkenness on duty, and/or issues of parallel magnitude. Warning letters to be considered as valid, shall be issued within thirty (30) days after the conclusion of the investigation of the violation claimed by the Employer in such warning letter. Any investigation performed by the Employer, or their designee, will be concluded within ninety (90) calendar days.
