From Sergeant Chad Schumacher, Mercer Island Police Marine Patrol:

For June, the Marine Patrol was focused on replacing our marker buoys throughout our jurisdictions. We are  $\frac{3}{4}$  of the way through replacing the ones that we lost over the winter months and should have the remaining buoys re-installed within the next week. The lake has started getting busier as the temperature continues to stay warm. We'd like to remind boaters to make sure that they have all of their required safety equipment before they head out. If anyone has questions about what is required, please contact the Marine Patrol Unit, and an Officer will happily go over the required equipment for their particular vessel.
