Subject: Planning Commission Annual Code Update

Category: Discussion

Staff Contact: Stephanie Keyser, Planning Manager

Summary

Every year Planning Commission forwards a recommendation to Council for small code amendments intended to: 1) clean-up and clarify the existing code, 2) streamline process for both staff and applicants, and 3) incorporate new legislative requirements. Tonight is Council's first review of the proposal. Planning Commission will hold a public hearing on Tuesday, November 15th and finalize their recommendation. On December 12th, Council will hold a second public hearing on the proposal, review Planning Commission's formal recommendation, and tentatively adopt the amendments.
