SPECIAL BUSINESS

AB 6315: 2021 Financial and Accountability Audit Exit Conference

Deputy Finance Director LaJuan Tuttle introduced the staff from the Washington State Auditor's Office (SAO).

Assistant Director of Local Audits Wendy Choy spoke about the importance of audits and how audits increase trust in government, are independent, transparent examinations, and improve efficiency and effectiveness of government.

Audit Manager Haji Adams presented the purpose of an accountability audit, discussed the City's compliance in all material respects, with applicable state laws, regulations, the City's own polices, and provide adequate controls over safeguarding of public resources. Mr. Adams spoke about the areas that were reviewed during the accountability audit including accounts payable, Public Works procurement, payroll, open public meetings minutes and Executive Sessions, and review for indications of financial distress.

Mr. Adams presented the financial statement audit results for 2021 and noted that there were no significant deficiencies in internal control, identified no deficiencies that the SAO consider to be material weaknesses, and noted no instances of noncompliance that were material to the financial statements of the City.

City Council asked questions of staff and the audit team.
