

City of Mercer Island, Washington

Proclamation

WHEREAS, the first Earth Day was organized on April 22, 1970 to increase awareness of our planet's fragile ecosystems and educate people on responsible environmental stewardship; and

WHEREAS, that same year, Mercer Island voters approved $5 million in park acquisitions and improvements to preserve healthy habitats and has the City continued to support sustainability efforts by:

- Adding sustainability language to its Comprehensive Plan in 2006 to reflect a deeper understanding of global climate change.
- In 2007, committing to reducing its greenhouse gas emissions 80% by 2050, in alignment with King County targets.
- Pursuing various energy efficiency and lighting upgrades, lowered its fuel usage, purchased electric vehicles, and overseen two community-wide solar installation campaigns.
- In 2013, Mercer Island was honored by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency as the national Green Power Community of the Year.
- In 2016, requiring that Town Center commercial developments meet at least LEED Gold or Built Green 4-Star sustainable construction standards.
- In 2018, receiving the SolSmart Gold designation from the Department of Energy for facilitating solar adoption and encouraging the addition of 116 solar arrays.

WHEREAS, starting in 2020, 100% of government operations are powered by clean renewable energy from a new 38-turbine windfarm in Western Washington; and

WHEREAS, Mercer Island continues to be an active supporter and advocate for state and county-level greenhouse gas reductions through the King County-Cities Climate Collaboration; and

WHEREAS, the City has embarked on its first-ever Climate Action Plan, due in December 2022; and

WHEREAS, Earth Day offers an opportunity to recommit to building a flourishing sustainable and equitable community for all, both now and in the future.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Salim Nice, Mayor of the City of Mercer Island, do hereby proclaim April 22, 2022 as in the City of Mercer Island and encourage all residents and businesses to be responsible stewards of our Island, the climate, and our planet.

EARTH DAY

APPROVED this 19th day of April 2022.
