

The Office of the Mayor

PROCLAMATION

Whereas, being a Rocky Mountain football player is more than tackles, yardage, kickoffs and touchdowns and achieving a state title. It is training to build leadership, character, confidence, teamwork and resilience – all traits needed to succeed on the field, in the classroom and in the real world; and,
Whereas, the Rocky Mountain Football team never backed down from familiar opponents and knocked off defending state champ Rigby to win its second state title in three seasons and third in six years; and,
Whereas, for the 2019-2020 season, the Grizzly Football Team overcame many hurdles but their hard work payed off as they took the 5A State Championship; and,
Whereas, the capturing of the state title builds school spirit and allows these student athletes to walk the halls of Rocky Mountain with a little extra swagger; and,
Whereas, the leadership, training and discipline of Head Coach Chris Culig and Assistants Scott Criner, Tim Stanley, Colin Domene, Tim Souza, Kaleo Nawahine, Nick Weatherly, Lamont Oliver, Glenn Humphries, Eric Fillmore, Mark Criner, Kekoa Nawahine, Jacob Pele, Mike Tanner, James Clyde, Anthony Flores, Troy Bacon, Joe Koga, Jeremy Ferguson, Garrett Munson, Issac Naylor and Brian Sweaney helped team members Jordan Erickson, Elijah Almanza, Landon Albert, Cameron Jenkins, Kobe Warr, Trevor VanGerpen, Braden Valentine, Ty Tanner, Jack England, Xander Nawahine, Max Nead, Selby Wilson, C.
