Topic: FY2025 Budget Amendment for BAPA Cash Donation to City

Background:

Over the years, we have worked closely with the Boise Area Pickleball Association (BAPA) to further the sport of pickleball in the Treasure Valley. Since BAPA was first formed, many courts have been added, including those in Meridian. There have been many increased opportunities to play pickleball and an increased awareness of the sport; Therefore, BAPA felt they had fulfilled their mission, and it was time to dissolve. Because of our close relationship with BAPA, they have donated their remaining funds of $17,500 to the City to purchase windscreens around the pickleball fences at Settlers Park ($4,950), 4 portable nets to be used at Settlers Park ($400), and 10 pickleball paddle holders at various sites ($550). The remaining funds ($11,600) will go directly into our Care Enough to Share program. This budget amendment will place the funds in a GL so we can purchase the items that were agreed upon.

Council Action:

Approve this budget amendment as presented.
