

The Office of the Mayor

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) is the national nonprofit, family-focused, intracurricular student organization for Family and Consumer Sciences students through grade 12; and,
- WHEREAS, the FCCLA helps youth assume their roles in society through Family and Consumer Sciences education in the areas of personal growth, family life, college readiness, career exploration, leadership, and community involvement; and,
- WHEREAS, the organization extends classroom learning through chapter service projects that develop leadership and employability skills and helps young men and women learn how to plan, make decisions, carry out program evaluations, and take action through working with other youth and adults within their school, community, and state; and,
- WHEREAS, FCCLA offers members an opportunity to work together for everyday purposes for the improvement of themselves, as well as their families, careers, and communities, and,
- WHEREAS, the week of February 13 through 17, 2023, has been designated national FCCLA Week with the theme, "IncREDible."
- THEREFORE, I, Mayor Robert E. Simison, hereby proclaim February 13-17, 2023 as in the City of Meridian and encourage the residents of our community to acquaint themselves with the activities and values of Family, Career and Community Leaders of America and provide support and encouragement to the students who are working to achieve knowledge and experience that will help prepare them for future responsibilities as active and concerned adult members of society.

FCCLA Week
