III. STAFF ANALYSIS

Since the time the preliminary plat was approved for the subject property, the developer of Sky Mesa obtained the property to the south and a preliminary plat was approved for that property (Southern Highlands H-2019-0123). For interconnectivity between the two subdivisions, revisions were made to the street and lot layout at the southern boundary of the preliminary plat in order to provide a street connection between the two developments. An updated preliminary plat was submitted with the final plat for Sky Mesa Highlands (FP-2020-0007) that showed the reconfiguration (see Section V.A).

Staff has reviewed the proposed final plat for substantial compliance with the approved preliminary plat (H-2017-0068) and reconfigured preliminary plat in accord with the requirements listed in UDC

11-6B-3C.2. The proposed final plat depicts the same number of building lots and more common open space area compared with that shown on the approved preliminary plat. Therefore, Staff deems the proposed final plat to be in substantial compliance with the approved preliminary plat as required.

IV. DECISION

Staff recommends approval of the proposed final plat within the conditions noted in Section VIII of this report.
