Temporary Public Art Projects

- Grant for Print Boise River awarded to Wingtip Press
- Series of activities in 5 Boise library locations
- Final Display at the Idaho History Museum

Print Boise

- Wingtip Press and Preservation Idaho partnered on a free walking tour of Boise to explore the area's culture and history, then plein air printmaking.
- Each participant received a print to take home and a selection was collected by Boise City Department of Arts & History's public art collection
- exhibited at MING Studios for First Thursday

• PRINT SHIFT

- Caitlin Harris | Cassandra Schiffler | Ameerah Bader
- This Print Shift Public Art Project was created on site at Treefort in March 2019. Our interactive project used letterpress printmaking and the individual responses generated by the Treefort community participants to create broadside posters that captured a diverse, inclusive, and unique range of responses to the festival experience.

The CREATIVE COMMUNITY BUILDER'S Handbook

How to Transform Communities Using Local Assets, Art, and Culture

Books I purchased when I was accepted the job:

- One Place after Another: Site-Specific Art and Locational Identity by Miwon Kwon
- The Creative Community Builder's Handbook: How to Transform Communities Using Local Assets, Art, and Culture by Tom Borrup
- Public Art: Theory, Practice and Populism by Cher Krause Knight

Personal Statement of Core Values and Beliefs

- I am Cassandra Schiffler and I am passionate about the arts.
- I value and have a deep respect for extraordinary performing, visual, and public arts. I believe that an artist's work has worth, and that artists should get paid for their work.
- I aspire to create opportunities for meaningful engagement with the arts and I recognize the time, energy, and commitment required, and the importance of finding more effective, more efficient, and more sustainable strategies to get there. I am solutions oriented, and I enjoy collaborative creative problem solving.
- I believe art is important, because art makes our quality of life better.
