RE: Parks & Recreation Master Plan Findings Summary and Update

Background

Last fall, Art Thatcher with GreenPlay (now Berry Dunn) presented a kick-off presentation to the City Council regarding the Parks & Recreation Master Plan process. Since that time, GreenPlay/Berry Dunn has conducted an extensive public involvement process including interviews, focus groups, and stakeholder meetings. We have also completed the public opinion survey and the facilities inventory and analysis. Art is coming back to town to present their findings at a public meeting on Wednesday, February 23 at 6 PM. We would like to provide the Mayor and Council an overview and summary of the key findings and next steps.

Proposal

No action needed. This is an update on the process to keep the City Council informed about the status, as well as a preview summary of the Findings presentation.
