DISCUSSION ITEMS [ACTION ITEMS]

2. General Updates on Projects: Transit Shelter Projects, Traffic Boxes, Chateau Park Public Art, Fuller Park, Unsolicited Public Art Proposal Guide/Call, Linder Overpass Project, Public Art Plan
Cassandra Schiffler updated the committee on current projects:
We are still waiting on transit shelter glass to be fixed, Chateau park final design has been approved by stake holders, Fuller park planning still on hold, the decision has been made that we are not accepting unsolicited proposals at this time so staff will not move forward on the proposal guide, and proposals are due for Linder overpass on July 1st.
3. Updates and Discuss: 2024 Traffic Box Call to Artists - Marketing, Timeline, Jury Members

Two community members have been found to help jury the traffic boxes, and Jay Smith also volunteered to be a jury member. Committee members were asked to continue to get the word out about traffic box applications (which are due July 5th).

4. Discuss: Public Art Temporary Mural Project at the September 14, 2024

Community Art Party

A project proposal was given by Jay Smith. (See attachment). The committee was enthusiastic about this project. The committee hopes that the panels might be displayed publicly somewhere after the event, and Staff will work to find potential options for temporary display after the event. The design for the community mural portion will be developed by Paxton Hergenroeder.

Live Mural Proposal

We will have 4 8'x8' mural panels built into a cube and primed white, set up at Kleiner Park for artists to perform a live painting.

We will have 3 local artists painting live for guests and attendees to watch, ask questions and interact with.

The artists will be:

Walter Gerald: IG: @waltercgerald

Lorelle Rau: IG: @lorellerau

Macy Ratzesberger: IG: @growing_graffiti

The 4th panel will be a "coloring book" style mural which will be designed by local artist James Lloyd and sketched by myself in a way that children and families attending the event can try their hand at painting along, which will be taught and led by myself.

Each mural artist will be paid a $500 stipend for their time and live painting on site. This is under the assumption that each artist will provide each of their paints and materials needed to paint for the 4 hour event.

Artist Payment: $1500 ($500 each)

Materials and lumber: $475.35

Administrative Costs: $1000 (paid to myself)

(Administrative costs include: Planning, building, storage and transportation of the mural panels, materials including brushes and trays (provided by me) for the community mural, organizational tasks, labor and cleanup, and leading the community mural.)

Total Cost: $2975.35

The Mural walls will be arranged in a cube shape. Each wall will be supported by a frame of 2x2x8 lumber, and held together with 3.5" hinges. This will allow easy set up and take down of the walls, and ease of transport.

Finished Panels can also be saved and displayed for public viewing if desired.
