Proclamation

Recognizing November 1 as Retired Educators Day and These Former Professionals' Contributions to Our Community

WHEREAS, millions of young people around Georgia over the years have been guided, instructed, mentored, and shaped by dedicated teachers and other school staff members; and

WHEREAS, educators like these routinely have gone above-and-beyond for their students in and out of the classroom, paving the way for their long-term development and success; and

WHEREAS, their prized contributions merit appreciation and celebration at all times, especially during Georgia's Retired Educators Day taking place every year in November; and

WHEREAS, spearheaded by the Georgia Retired Educators Association, this is an annual opportunity to reflect on men and women who spent decades in school hallways and classrooms making a difference; and

WHEREAS, there are about 145,000 such professionals in Georgia alone who, even after their retirements, continue to make a positive impact on our communities in countless ways.

Now, therefore, we — the Mayor and City Council of the City of Milton — recognize November 1, 2026, as Retired Educators Day while lauding the past, present, and future contributions of these impressive individuals.

Given under my hand and seal of the City of Milton, Georgia on this 2nd day of November 2026.

Peyton Jamison, Mayor
