

Proclamation

Recognizing National Public Safety Telecommunicators Week and the Dedicated 911 Dispatchers Who Serve Milton

- WHEREAS, National Public Safety Telecommunicators Week honors a pivotal group of public servants annually during the second week of April; and
- WHEREAS, these 911 dispatchers exhibit impressive calm, competence, and expertise during stressful active emergencies such as car crashes, house fires, and criminal activity; and
- WHEREAS, often the first to talk to those in crisis, great telecommunicators display empathy, knowledge, and efficiency in collecting vital information and sharing it promptly with First Responders; and
- WHEREAS, Milton is fortunate to have an outstanding, caring, hard-working team of 911 dispatchers as part of our public safety partnership with the City of Alpharetta; and
- WHEREAS, these telecommunicators field calls 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 52 weeks a year as a vital element of First Response operations, helping to protect properties, optimize service and support, and save lives; and
- WHEREAS, the City is proud of their diligence and professionalism as well as thankful for their proven dedication to our community.

Now, therefore, we — the Mayor and City Council of the City of Milton — recognize April 14 through 20 as Public Safety Telecommunicators Week and celebrate our City's own exceptional 911 dispatchers.

Given under our hand and seal of the City of Milton, Georgia on this 14th day of April 2025.

Peyton Jamison, Mayor
