2. Proclamation - Black History Month – Carrillo

Mayor Pro Tem Plata moved to approve the Proclamation – Black History Month. Motion was seconded by Councilwoman Ortega and approved unanimously 5-0.

3. Recognition of Mission High School Junior Class – Torres

Cesar Torres, Chief of Police, recognized the Mission High School Junior Class for their efforts in helping make the “Kops for Kids” event a great success. The MHS Junior Class puts in a great effort to collect toy donations for this event. Due to their hard work, the Mission Police Department is able to distribute hundreds of toys throughout our community.

4. Presentation of 2023 Annual Crime Report – Torres

Police Chief Cesar Torres presented the 2023 Annual Crime Report. The annual crime report painted a picture of crime rate and how it was addressed. When a crime was committed, there was a process that followed. An officer took the report which was then assigned to investigations where a case would be opened. The crime analyst would then review said case and report it accordingly. The Mission Police Department had implemented several programs to deter crime. In 2023, a total of 3,563 offense reports were created. In comparison to 2022, the crime rate decreased by a total of 2399%.

5. Paint Mission Beautiful Presentation – Mendiola

Roel Mendiola, Sanitation Director, presented an upcoming project, “Paint Mission Beautiful”, which is a joint effort between Keep Mission Beautiful and the Community Development Block Grant (CDBG). This project would afford low income, elderly and/or disabled residents an opportunity to have their home repainted and their yards beautified. This would be done by community volunteers and school groups. The program was set to kick off on April 6, 2024.

6. Report from the Greater Mission Chamber of Commerce – Enriquez

Brenda Enriquez, Mission Chamber of Commerce President, spoke about upcoming events such as: Buenas Tardes Luncheon on Thursday, February 14th, Ribbon Cutting for Rally Credit Union on February 20th, February 22nd Educational Session on branding your business and membership mixer, February 23rd Book Signing, February 29th Ribbon Cutting for the Recycling Drop off Center, Friday March 1st Annual Winter Texan Fiesta.

7. Departmental Reports – Perez

Mayor Pro Tem Plata moved to approve the departmental reports as presented. Motion was seconded by Councilwoman Ortega and approved unanimously 5-0.

8. Citizen's Participation – Garza

Alix Pulido, of Freedom Life Church, stated that they were excited to be having their “Love Week” Valentines Campaign. During this time, they have been doing random acts of kindness, giving back to our community. She encouraged everyone to take part in the campaign and spread love and kindness.

JD Villarreal wanted to give his compliments to the city for their work on the Stewart Road project. He was thankful that the city took on this projected and executed it so well despite of bad weather days and delays. He thanked Mr. Bocanegra, City Engineer and the council for all their efforts in making the project a success.

Irma Flores Lopez, 1201 Keralum, stated she was pleasantly surprised to see the updated financial statements online. She reiterated how important it was to be transparent and provide this information to the public. Ms. Flores was also delighted that there were now water fountains at Astroland Park and was excited to see that the restrooms were coming soon. She also stated that she went to a Texas Citrus Fiesta meeting and was delighted to see how everyone greeted her and suggested that the council also greet everyone as we are a friendly city.
