AGENDA ITEM: Authorization to submit a grant application to the National Park Service for the Underrepresented Communities Grant Program. – Elizalde

NATURE OF REQUEST:

The Mission Historical Museum is requesting authorization for the submission of a grant application to the National Park Service for the Underrepresented Communities Grant Program. Through the Historic Preservation Fund, the program seeks to diversify the nominations submitted to the National Register of Historic Places. The project will focus on contractual services to survey and inventory historic properties within the City of Mission for the purpose of identifying and submitting to the National Register of Historic Places. The total grant request is up to $75,000 and does not require a cash match.
