

Proclamation

City of Mission

WHEREAS, the Nation of Lifesavers is a community committed to equipping individuals with the lifesaving skills of cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) to enhance the safety and well-being of all citizens; and

WHEREAS, sudden cardiac arrest is a leading cause of death, and prompt intervention through CPR can double or even triple a victim's chance of survival; and

WHEREAS, education and hands-on training in CPR empower individuals to respond effectively during emergencies, turning bystanders into heroes; and

WHEREAS, AmeriCorps is proud to partner with Speer Memorial Library and host a Nation of Lifesavers CPR demonstration to promote awareness and preparedness within our community; and

WHEREAS, this event will take place on February 4th, providing an opportunity for residents to gain critical knowledge and practice techniques that could save lives; and

WHEREAS, collaboration among local organizations underscores the importance of community engagement in fostering a culture of readiness and mutual care;

NOW THEREFORE, we, the City Council of the City of Mission, do hereby proclaim the month of February 2025:

National Lifesavers Month

a month dedicated to CPR education and demonstration, celebrating the transformative power of knowledge and action in safeguarding lives;

PROCLAIMED on this the 10th day of February 2025.
