Voting Yea: Commissioner Ankney, Commissioner Beese, Commissioner Molitor, Commissioner Wu

- b. Periodic Update - Information

Ms. Tainio provided information to the Commission to address questions raised at the last meeting that included how households of color were defined, explanation for why there were negative numbers in Charts 14a and 15, and how the housing share number calculations were derived.

- c. Periodic Update - Review modifications to Draft Comprehensive Plan Ch. 1, 2, 3, & 4 and new Draft Comprehensive Plan Parks & Recreation Element (Ch. 10)

Ms. Tainio explained that the Comprehensive Plan had not been updated when Ordinances 524 & 525 were adopted; those updates have now been included. The Commission went over Chapters 1, 2, 3 & 4 as well as the Parks & Recreation element for a final review before the public hearing. Their discussions included climate information, adding clarifying language to graph #15, new transit map, Argonne Congestion Relief Project pedestrian crossings, mini parks and the capital improvements program.

4. PUBLIC REMARKS

Kyle Dement, 10306 E Empire, expressed concerns that flag lots were not allowed in his neighborhood, but a 17-unit trailer park was.

Todd Beese, 8610 E South Riverway, expressed concerns about the Argonne Congestion Relief Project and asked about having language regarding the narrowing of Argonne Road included in the Comprehensive Plan.

Shirene Young, 8903 E Liberty, announced that the Pumpkin Patch was changing its name to the Millwood Community Garden; Millwood Impact would be taking responsibility for the garden moving forward instead of the Millwood Community Association.

5. REPORTS
