REGULAR AGENDA

5. Presentation and discussion of the preliminary recommended proposed budget for Fiscal Year 2026 – Police Chief Anthony Solomon.

Police Chief Anthony Solomon led the discussion centered around reviewing and refining the City’s budget, which closely aligns with this year’s figures, incorporating recurring costs and new expenditures such as barricades, additional flop cameras, drone software, Motorola radios, and lease payments for a new building. The budget also reflects strategic reallocations, like returning approximately $323,000 to the general fund, and addresses upcoming expenses such as election costs, pending bills, and future staffing plans contingent on facility readiness. The timeline for finalizing the budget includes meetings in July and September, with Council approval expected by mid-September, emphasizing ongoing transparency, fiscal responsibility, and community safety enhancements through investments in equipment and technology.

CLOSING AGENDA

6. Items to consider for placement on future agendas.

Board Member Donaldson said he was thinking about some of the charity events that are held during the year and if that is part of this or the other budget that is done. Chief Solomon clarified that most charity events, like Shop with a Cop and Faith in Blue, are funded through community donations and volunteer efforts, not the City’s budget, and therefore, do not appear as line items in the budget. The department recognizes the importance of these community-building initiatives and appreciates the ongoing support from local residents and volunteers who contribute through personal donations and volunteer activities. The department emphasizes that these events are designed to foster community engagement without relying on city funds, maintaining a focus on community involvement and philanthropy outside of official budget allocations.

President Gordon stated there were no items to consider for placement on future agendas.
