

A&R Eclectics & Retail LLC for North Houston Art Gallery

Objective: A professionally drawn black & white mural 10 feet high by 20 feet wide.

Location: Midsection of north wall of the Art Gallery building extension. The entire building extension is approximately 11 feet by 40 feet.

Design Inspiration: The intent is to provide a visual glimpse of what a livery stable may have looked like. The location is based on the fact that tokens were found on this property and passed down through the decades. Please see photo plaque for details (exhibit A).

Historical Significance: There is a teaching moment and opportunity to visually connect the history of a Montgomery Tx livery stable with the N.H. Davis museum plaque and the Montgomery Historic district.

Artist: local (Montgomery Tx) professional Artist Amy McCain.

These old coin-like stones are Claim tokens or Livery Tokens presented to N.H. Davis Pioneer Complex & Museum of Montgomery, TX. Historic District by Anthony & Rebecca Noreiga of Texas and Beyond/North Houston Art Gallery & Gift Shop 14259 Liberty Street.

Montgomery County was originally known as Montgomery Settlement prior to being chartered in 1837. The town of Montgomery, TX. served as a trading post where stage coaches and telegraph line crossed. Mrs. Bessie Price Owen, a noted Montgomery, TX. history teacher and historian confirms that tokens above (engraved with the #s 18, 19 and 4) are actual Livery Stable Tokens used on the lot of 14259 Liberty Street Montgomery, TX. These claimed tokens were found on the lot by Donald and Billy Ray Duncan. They gave it to the Gains family who build the current structure on this lot in 1995.

The Gains gave it to the previous owners Darron Kirt and Emily Jones of Pecan Hill Florist Business. The Jones gave it to Anthony and Rebecca Noreiga, the current proprietors of this property. These precious and historic tokens were used as a claim ticket for horses, mules and wagons to be stabled.

Antique livery tokens found on the property and given to the current owners. These tokens will be on display at the N.H. Davis Museum across the street from the proposed mural.

A conceptual rendering of the mural. The completed mural will be in black and white.

A mock up image of the proposed size and location of the mural on the north wall of the building. The wall will remain Jazzy Blue.
