City Council Agenda Summary

Agenda Number: _____
Department: Police
Date: March 4, 2024

Agenda Item: A Request Authorizing Safe Passage To Hold The Taste Of Missouri (Wine) Stroll Event On August 24, 2024.

Summary: We received a request from Safe Passage for approval to hold the 2024 Taste of MO Wine Stroll on 8/24/2024, from 3:00-8:00 PM to support Safe Passage. They also request the lifting of City Code 6-5 to allow public consumption of alcoholic beverages in event glasses only in the designated area in downtown Moberly. The requested area includes the sidewalks and street of W Reed St from Johnson St to Clark St, 4th Street from the north side of Rollins to the north sidewalk of Reed St. Williams St from the north sidewalk of Rollins to the north sidewalk of Reed St. Rollins Street north sidewalk from 4th Street to the west sidewalk of Clark St and Clark St west sidewalk only from Rollins north sidewalk to Reed St north sidewalk and the alley west of the Auditorium. Safe Passage also requests the 200, 300, 400 and 500 block of W Reed be closed from 5:00 PM August 23 through 11:00 PM on August 24 to allow for event vendors. 5th, 4th and Williams and their intersections with W Reed will remain open. They also request permission to hang a banner on the pedestrian bridge over Rollins Street.

Event staff and volunteers will check ID for every participant to ensure legal consumption age. They will issue an event arm band to help with compliance and provide an event cup/glass for consumption in designated areas. The event approval and licensing will be completed as required and they will carry liability insurance. No issues have arisen during past wine strolls, and they have proven to be a benefit to both Safe Passage and Moberly Downtown. It is expected for attendance of 750-1150 persons. 10-12 wineries will be at various downtown businesses, a silent auction and catered meal will be held inside the Auditorium. Paid staff and volunteers will monitor the 4th Street Theater, Auditorium parking lot, and the Auditorium. Safe Passage Director, Kelly Pedigo is the contact person and may be reached at 660-269-8999 with further questions.

Recommended Action Please approve the request.
