Board Member Reports and Discussion

MHS Strategic Plan

Hunter Rush representing MHS Planning presented the updated strategic/comprehensive plan.

City Administrator added he feels that all of these projects could be attainable within a five year period. He further reported that one of the property projects on SH37 north of I30 has been secured by the Franklin County Industrial Foundation, so that is one step closer. The Industrial Foundation has also closed on their final piece of the property on the north service road and Gadlin Street.
