

Town of New Castle, State of Colorado

Proclamation

WHEREAS, Bob Gordon served the town of New Castle as a councilor from 1998 to 2010 and from 2012-2014; and

WHEREAS, from 2014-2016, Bob served as Mayor; and

WHEREAS, in 2016 Bob and Judy moved from their life-long hometown of New Castle, though their affection for the town never diminished; and

WHEREAS, in addition to his elected positions, Bob was well-known as a master carpenter, building many homes both within town limits and nearby; and

WHEREAS, Bob also constructed the gazebo in Burning Mountain Park; and

WHEREAS, he oversaw the installation of three J-hooks in Elk Creek, providing shelter for fish; and

WHEREAS, he was active in many facets of the First Baptist Church of New Castle, serving as a trustee and then as Head Trustee; and

WHEREAS, Bob was passionate about fishing, his garden, his church, his town and his family; and

WHEREAS, after a long struggle with illness, Bob passed away on February 10, 2025;

NOW THEREFORE, the Town Council of the Town of New Castle recognizes Bob Gordon for his significant service to the Town, and extends its condolences his family; and

FURTHERMORE, directs that a memorial bench be placed in Rollie Gordon Park in his honor.

Let this Proclamation be entered into the official records of the Town
